

Can you help? Know anyone that can?

NEW

I'm a quiet, geeky, mature, professional Librarian moving back to Whitehorse after completing graduate studies in BC. I'm looking for a 1-bedroom apartment (bachelor, studio, etc.) or basement suite. Preferred budget up to $1200/month. Would be open to shared accommodations if there was a good fit. Furnished or unfurnished. Would prefer laundry facilities on-site. I'm a non-smoker, non-partier, and I don't have any pets. Message me if you have anything available, thanks!

There will be a TRUNK SALE at WUC from 9-noon on Saturday September 12th. Due to the pandemic we're going to be strict about the process:

- you'll need to tell the church office ahead of time (667-2989) if you are bringing things for the sale
- you have to be there yourself to sell them. No drop-offs
- anything you don't sell is your responsibility to take away
- all proceeds to WUC
- we'll need helpers - could that be you?

Fierce Blessing by Jan Richardson

Reading from the Hebrew Scriptures, Year A, Proper 16/Ordinary 21/Pentecost +11: Exodus 1.8-2.10

The story of the Exodus begins in the hearts of the women. The midwives Shiphrah and Puah, the mother of Moses, his sister, the daughter of Pharaoh: without them, no Moses, no Exodus, no freedom.

There is a beautiful resonance between the story of these women and the story of the Canaanite mother whose lively exchange with Jesus we saw last week. Each in her own way is bent on tracing the circle wider. They give themselves, often at great risk, to save the life of another. Clever, creative, and fiercely devoted to those in their care, each woman displays a sacred stubbornness that will forever alter the story of the people of God.

And us? What, and whom, will we choose to be fierce in protecting? How will we give ourselves to help make possible the life and the freedom of another?

Fierce Blessing

Believe me when I say there is nothing this blessing would not do to protect you, to save you, to encompass you.

This blessing would stand between you and every danger, every evil, every harm and hurt.

This blessing would dare to wade with you into the waters that come bearing life.

It would make a way for you through the waters that come threatening death.

I cannot explain how fierce this blessing feels about you but I can tell you it has more than pledged itself to you;

it would lay down its life for you and not once look back in regret nor go in sorrow for what it has chosen to give.

And you— so deeply blessed, so utterly encompassed— what will you save in turn?

Not because it is owed but because you cannot imagine failing to pass along this grace that casts its circle so wide, this love that flows so deep through this perilous and precious life.

On August 4, 2020 a massive explosion rocked the city of Beirut, Lebanon. The explosion caused immense destruction and the death toll continues to rise.

The United Church of Canada has been in direct contact with Mission & Service partners in the region. Samer Laham of the Middle East Council of Churches (MECC) tells the United Church:

“Thank God that MECC[‘s] team is safe but the situation in Beirut is beyond imagination. You cannot believe the level of destruction in many historical areas in Beirut [...] Beirut needs billions of dollars to rebuild what it lost in one minute [...] and maybe it will take some years to be recovered from this disastrous event.”

Make a gift today to help those affected by this tragedy in Beirut.

Secret sisters

Secret Sister Garden Party! Sunday, August 30 at 3:00pm - 9 Williams Road

Secret Sisters is an awesome ministry in our church family. Women of our congregation meet once a year, share a meal, find out who was our Secret Sister last year and draw a new Secret Sister profile for the coming year. For the next year you will be a Secret Sister and remember your secret sister through prayer, cards, little gifts (if you want) all of which adds up to making someone else's day a little brighter.

It's a garden party! So, wear your "tea dress", a hat or fascinator and bring a lawn chair and a snack for yourself. Tea and coffee provided. We will respect social distancing and keep everyone safe!

If you simply want to join us for the Garden Party and fellowship that is absolutely fine. You are welcome to join us Sunday, August 30 at 3:00pm; 9 Williams Road (backyard).

When Sprinkles Save Lives

In North Korea, Baby Bok-Ryan (pictured above) was hungry and malnourished. She was severely underweight, and her growth was delayed. Desperate to see her baby's health improve, her mother, O Mi-Yang, signed up to receive a nutritional supplement called "Sprinkles", sachets filled with life-saving micronutrients in powder form that can be added to food. The sachets are distributed by First Steps, a Vancouver-based partner supported by Mission & Service. It helped transform both of their lives.

Sorry, but not yet...Summer Worship Online Only at WUC

You may have heard that places of worship are now able to re-open in Yukon. However there are many requirements that must be met and many limitations which impact our ability to be the welcoming place we want to be.

Dr. Hanley, bless him, recently hosted a Zoom meeting specifically with leaders of faith communities to discuss the necessary safety restrictions. Sheila Maissan, chair of our Worship Committee, Joan Stanton, chair of Council, and Bev attended, and both committees have discussed his advice.

After much prayerful consideration and consultation, Whitehorse United will not reopen immediately. We will continue offering online Sunday worship from the sanctuary with only the worship leaders present.

First and foremost this is about loving our neighbours and serving our people in the most faithful way we can. How do we love our neighbours right now? Most of our regular attenders are considered vulnerable and we wish to lovingly protect them.

The current restrictions mean we could not offer worship anything like what we had. The things that we are missing the most would be missing still.

For example:

- No singing or spoken participation
- No hugs or handshakes
- No socializing
- No coffee time
- No children's programs
- Assigned, well separated seating
- Six foot distance maintained at all times
- Maximum 26 people attending
- Attendance lists kept

And how could we “enforce” these restrictions? How could we stop people from touching, from singing along, stop children from running around? We try hard to be an inclusive congregation. How do we select who can attend? How do we refuse people who show up?

The goal of a safe, open and welcoming space seems unattainable right now. These restrictions apply to outdoor as well as indoor gatherings.

We are reaching many people the way we're doing it now. We are investing in better equipment and expect the quality of our broadcasting to continue to improve, many thanks to Ernie Prokopchuk and many others! We will re-evaluate the situation in fall.

If you want to discuss this further, please contact Bev (633-3777, bcsbrazier@live.ca), Sheila (668-7774, maissan@northwestel.net), or Joan (332-4073) (stanish@northwestel.net)

Bless you.

COVID-19 Related Information

“Virtual” health appointments are now available. Thanks to COVID-19, Yukoners now can have a “virtual health appointment” with a doctor or optometrist using a computer with a “tele-medicine” program called Doxy. Anecdotal reports from seniors who have used the service have all been positive – perhaps this option will continue after self-isolation is no longer required? It will make life easier for people in the communities or with transportation challenges in town. You still need to make an appointment with your physician in the usual way. Don’t forget the 811 phone service is also available if you have a health question or concern.

Reminder: COVID-19 information online

The one-stop-shop for information about COVID-19 in the Yukon – including government financial assistance programs – is at yukon.ca/covid-19. For a handy table comparing the symptoms for COVID-19, influenza and a cold, click HERE.

If you can, support our local restaurants

Don't feel like cooking one night and want to support a local restaurant? What's Up Yukon has done a great job at keeping us up to date with all the restaurants that are still open and offering take-out/delivery services. If you have a favourite restaurant, now is the time to support them so they'll be around after the COVID restrictions are lifted. Click HERE for the list.

Let's Chat Yukon now operating

Stuck at home and wishing you had someone to speak with? April 15th marked the launch of Let's Chat Yukon, a toll-free line you can call for enjoyable conversation with a fellow Yukoner. Just because you're self-isolating doesn't mean you're alone. This is a free service run by volunteers. 1-877-321-1001
